GGSIU/VCO/2025/11245
August 18, 2025

Respected Sir,

Kindly refer to my DO letter of even number dated 7th May, 2025 requesting nominations of suitable officers of different Departments of GNCT of Delhi for admission in MBA (Disaster Management) Weekend Programme in University's Centre of Excellence in Disaster Management (CEDM). The academic session 2025-26 is likely to start shortly and the University has not received any response from any of the officer(s)/Official(s) of GNCT of Delhi till date.

The University hope that with the advisory more and more employees of Govt. of NCT of Delhi will prefer the admission in the said which will help the society in many ways in the rescue and relief operations during any natural / manmade disaster/calamities as the first responder of the society/area badly impacted.

As you are also aware that in the monsoon season of 2025, many casualties have taken place besides loss of property in different parts of the country owing to cloud burst or heavy rain fall. The society would be more safe if it has at its door step many experts volunteers to lay a hand of help in such eventualities.

The eligibility criteria for admission to MBA (Disaster Management) Weekend Programme is that the applicant be a holder of Bachelor's Degree with minimum 50% marks and one-year experience. The fee structure shall be as per the University norms. The said programme shall develop, inculcate and impart the following traits among the aspirants :

1. Capacity Building with enhanced disaster management capabilities ;
2. Better coordination and collaboration among various departments and agencies ;
3. Career advancement and retention of the nomination officers ; and,
4. Institutional strengthening.

I shall, therefore, once again request you to kindly issue the suitable instructions to the Services Department to coordinate with all the Departments of NCT of Delhi for the nomination of suitable officer(s)/official(s) from Government of NCT of Delhi for admission in MBA (Disaster Management) Weekend Programme of the University for the academic session 2025-26.
